SOCIETY, CLUBS, LODGES, CHURCHES

From Here and There Over the State

Albuquerque Visitor.

Miss Pauline Borradaile, house guest of Miss Lorna Lester, also of Albuquerque, who is spending the summer at the Metcalf ranch at Tesuque, entertained at tea Thursday afternoon. Her guests made the trip from Santa Fe by motor, and her invitations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Rapp, Miss Helen Rapp, Miss Nora Henderson, Miss May Bergere, Miss Consuelo Bergere, Miss Dolores Bergere, Miss Rosina Bergere, Miss Grace Lord and Miss Nelta Nusbaum.

Miss Nora Henderson also entertained informally in honor of Miss Borradaile at a small dancing party Wednesday night. Her guests were Misses Borradaile, Lester, Rapp, Lord, and Messrs. Alling, Odebraski, Winsor and Wiley.

Informal Dancing Party.

The charming daughters, Miss Virginia and LuRee, of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Knight, of El Paso, who are spending the summer here, delightfully entertained the younger dancing set Tuesday evening. The same set was entertained by Alfred Rolls at his home on Palace avenue, Saturday evening, and a very delightful time was had in both instances.

Reception.

Mrs. Carl A. Bishop, Mrs. Albert H. Clancy and Mrs. John P. Adams, were joint hostesses at one of the most delightful teas given this summer, at the lovely home of Mrs. Bishop, Wednesday afternoon from three to six o'clock. Many of their mutual friends were there to enjoy the hospitality of these charming matrons, who belong to the younger set of Santa Fe's society. The flowers were beautiful and the refreshments were most delicious.

Birthday Party.

Truman Hedding, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Hedding celebrated his fourteenth birthday last Saturday with a small dinner party at his home. His guests were the officers of the New Mexico Central railway, of which he is now a "vacation" employee.

Nambe Falls Party.

Mrs. Felix Lester, Miss Pauline Borradaile and Miss Lorna Lester, of Albuquerque, Miss Henderson, and Messrs. John Winsor, Alfred Wiley and DeForest Lord composed this party on Sunday last, which was made within the day and was a most delightful trip. The trip was made on horseback.

Dinner Hostess.

Mrs. B. F. Ristine entertained at a Sunday night supper in honor of her mother, Mrs. Patton. Those invited were Mrs. McGill, the Misses Massie, Dr. Massie, Miss Conrad and Mrs. Spencer. The table was a perfect feat in its appointments.

Trout Fishing.

L. B. Wooters, S. C. McCrimmon, Frank Sturges and John Zimmerman, spent Sunday fishing on the Rio en Medio, forty-four trout were the number brought home.

Delgado Wedding Party.

One of the prettiest wedding ceremonies of the season was witnessed by many Santa Feans Monday morning, when Miss Maria Delgado was married to Manuel Delgado, of Las Vegas. The ceremony was performed in the Cathedral of St. Francis by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Antonio Fourcheu, vicar general of the archdiocese of Santa Fe, who celebrated the nuptial mass. The cathedral choir sang suitable selections.

The bride was attired in a Princess gown of silk messaline trimmed with lace and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses. Mrs. Aniceta de Baca, who acted as matron of honor, wore a Princess gown of striped silk poplin trimmed with crepe de chine. Eduardo Baca of Las Vegas was the best man. Little Maria Delgado was the flower girl and looked very sweet in a white dress, wearing a white veil.

Following the wedding ceremony, the bridal party and many of their relatives and friends were served a wedding breakfast at the Delgado residence on Canyon road. A reception followed at which the Most Rev. Archbishop J. B. Pitaval, of Santa Fe, was present. The archbishop blessed the bridal couple after offering his felicitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Delgado left Monday for Denver and Salt Lake. They will be at home in Las Vegas after August first.

The bride is a daughter of Frank Delgado, who is in the office of the U. S. Land Office here, and one of the leading Democrats of the city. Mrs. Delgado was educated at the Lorreto academy in Las Vegas and is popular in that city and Santa Fe. The bridegroom is a son of Martin Delgado of Las Vegas, where he is well and favorably known. The good wishes of their many friends attend them.

Dancing Class.

The Dancing Class met with Mrs. E. A. Fiske on Monday. Monday Bridge Club met with Mrs. Hugh Gilmour on Buena Vista Heights. Mrs. Guy W. Turley won the prize.

The Saturday Bridge Club met with Mrs. James L. Seligman on Hillside Avenue.

The Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. Gibson, on Chapelle Street Monday afternoon. Mrs. W. J. Fauth was the leader.

The Wallace Club met with Miss Boyle. Outside of the regular members, there were Mrs. Radin, Misses Jacobs, Hunt and Massie.

Womans Board of Trade Chain Parties.

Mrs. E. R. Wright, delightfully entertained at Bridge Monday evening. Mrs. Walter Turley was awarded the honors of evening. This party was exceptionally delightful. Refreshments were in keeping with the rule "light but dainty".

Mrs. Anna Townsend had another of these chain parties Tuesday afternoon, at her home on De Vargas. There were three tables, at which rubbers were played. Mrs. Brady winning one prize, Mrs. Bush another and Mrs. Sears still another. Delicious refreshments were served. The tables were on the porch which made it a truly "summer party".

Mrs. Henry Dendahl will entertain Thursday afternoon for her sister who is visiting here for the summer. Five o'clock tea will be the feature of this affair.

A number of the big chain parties are being planned to be given within the month of July and August, and the number is rapidly increasing towards the 72nd mark. A detailed report as to how the parties are progressing will be forthcoming within the near future.
